

Strawberry Field Day

Wednesday, June 7, starting at 1:00 pm

at the
North Willamette Research & Extension Center
Oregon State University
15210 NE Miley Road, Aurora, Oregon

For more information contact 971-373-5912
or visit <http://oregonstate.edu/dept/NWREC/>

Hosted by:

Dr. Bernadine Strik, Professor of Horticulture, Berry Crops Research Leader, NWREC

The field day will start promptly at 1:00 p.m. in the field just east of the parking lot

“Pesticide registration update” (Joe DeFrancesco, Integrated Plant Protection Center, OSU)

“An introduction of Greg O’Neill, the new IR-4 Field Center Director, NWREC (OSU)” – by Joe DeFrancesco

“Shaping pollinator protection in Oregon”
(Dr. Andony Melathopoulos, Dept. Horticulture, OSU)

“Hot topics in weed management” (Dr. Ed Peachey, Dept. Horticulture, OSU)

“An introduction of Dr. Marcelo Moretti, new weed management faculty member, Dept.
Horticulture, OSU” – by Ed Peachey

Refreshment Break – (Brian Yorgey, Dept. Food Sci. & Tech., OSU; Patrick Jones, NWREC; Ted Mackey, USDA-ARS, HCRU)

“DNA-informed breeding in strawberry” (Dr. Jason Zurn, Postdoc, USDA-ARS, NCGR)

“OSC fresh market grower trial update” (Julie Pond, Peerbolt Crop Management)

“Evaluate and walk through the latest advanced selections and new cultivars in the strawberry breeding plots” (Dr. Chad Finn, USDA-ARS, HCRU, Corvallis; Dr. Pat Moore, WSU)

Please note that there will be a Caneberry Field Day at the NWREC on June 28, 1:00- 5:00pm.

Blueberry Field Day will be on July 12, from 1:00 to 5:00 pm