

FALL 2019 HORTICULTURE SEMINAR SERIES

TUESDAYS
4:00-5:00 PM
ALS 4000

HORT 507/607

OCT 8 - Andony Melathopoulos (Assistant Professor, Pollinator Health Extension) "Why is it so hard to get pollinator habitat into Western Oregon managed landscapes?"

OCT 22 - Brian Krug (Head Grower, Corteva Agrisciences) "Harnessing horticulture to advance an agronomic company."

OCT 29 - Priya Chakrabarti (Postdoc Research Associate, Apiculture Lab) "The impacts of various stressors on bee pollinators – OSU Honey Bee Lab updates."

NOV 5 - Robin Rosetta (Associate Professor, Nursery Integrated Pest Management Extension) " Shop of Little Horrors: Reflection on 25 Years of Nursery Pest Extension in Oregon."

NOV 12 - Brittany Barker (Postdoc Research Associate, Horticulture) "Modeling climate suitability and phenology to safeguard U.S. agricultural and natural resources from invasive pests."

NOV 19 - Nicole Sanchez (Assistant Professor, Horticulture) "Hort Career Retrospective: Knowing when NOT to stick to the plan"

NOV 26 - David Leon (PhD Candidate) "Development of a fertilizer blend for coffee in Peru."

DEC 3 - Alice Formiga (Assistant Professor, Horticulture) "Identifying vegetables in historical art and botanical works: the case of Cucurbita maxima."

