FALL 2021 HORTICULTURE SEMINAR SERIES
HORT 507/607

TUESDAYS
1:30-2:30 PM
ALS 4000 & ZOOM

SEPT 28 – How to breed better apples using genomics
Zoe Migicovsky, Dalhousie University

OCT 5 – What I did this summer: AAAS Mass Media Fellowship at the St. Louis Post-Dispatch
Aaron Anderson, OSU Horticulture

OCT 12 – Invasive pest species (spotted wing drosophila and brown marmorated stink bug) and their management strategies
Serhan Mermer, OSU Horticulture

OCT 19 – Early dispatches from the Hemp Extension program at SOREC
Govinda Shrestha, OSU Horticulture Extension

OCT 26 – Playing chess with invasive species: a never-give up long match
Gabriella Tait, OSU Horticulture

NOV 2 – A sweet relationship: Bees and canola production
Shelley Hoover, University of Lethbridge

NOV 9 – Soil health for sustainability and resilience
Shikha Singh, OSU, Horticulture

NOV 16 – Cherry Blossoms, Plant Phenology, and Climate
Soo-Hyung Kim, University of Washington

NOV 23 – TBD

NOV 30 – How industry research can inform advancements in a pesticide risk assessment for pollinators
Dan Schmehl, Bayer CropScience LP

Information about the course is available by contacting the Seminar Coordinator, Andony Melathopoulos at:
andony.melathopoulos@Oregonstate.edu